BSMA is committed to providing assistance to those students who might otherwise be unable to study at the school. Financial Assistance is offered to students based on need and commitment to their studies. Limitations in the amount of aid available may mean that not every student with a demonstrated need can be helped. There are no 100% awards given to any student and all students must pay the yearly registration fee. All applications received by the stated deadlines will be considered equally and the school will assist as many students as possible. All information submitted by students will be kept in strict confidence.

Students are expected to attend all lessons and classes and to practice daily to insure their satisfactory progress. Students are expected to participate regularly in student recitals and to attend at least one guest artist program at BSMA during the year. All lessons must be paid for whether taken or missed. Students will be charged the full rate for lessons missed which are not excused in advance by the teacher or the Executive Director. Two consecutive unexcused absences may be cause for withdrawal of the scholarship for the remainder of the school year. Families receiving assistance may be asked to volunteer their time at the Broadway School as the need arises.

The Broadway School of Music & the Arts does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, color, nationality or ethnicity, origin or religion in any of its admissions or educational policies administered by the school.

I declare that the above information is correct and complete, and I understand that financial aid may be withdrawn from any student who does not maintain a record of cooperation, endeavor and achievement satisfactory to the Broadway School of Music & the Arts. I understand that: a) financial aid is awarded only for a period of one year; b) the award will appear as a credit on the student's account and be proportionately distributed over one year provided the student continues to be enrolled and their account and attendance are in good standing; and c) I must request renewal on a yearly basis by filling out a new financial aid form.
